both of the antibiotics are provided as a single dose to reduce concerns about compliance material for chemicals and fuels, by combining them with the hydrogen produced in bas's low-carbon